

ASSOCIATION OF NATIVE CHILD AND FAMILY SERVICE AGENCIES OF ONTARIO

JOB POSTING:

CHILD PROTECTION INFORMATION NETWORK(CPIN) /LEGACY SYSTEMS LEAD

The ANCFSAO is a provincial association of member Indigenous Child Well-Being Agencies mandated to build a better life for all Indigenous children through policy development, analyses, research and advocacy in promoting the delivery of culturally-based quality family services to Indigenous populations in Ontario.

You understand that structure and guidance are critical to successful organizations. With a keen eye for detail and the ability to see things from multiple perspectives, you thrive in a small team environment shaping the future direction of the organization with a ground floor opportunity in a growing field.

Reporting to the Executive Director, the Child Protection Information Network (CPIN)/Legacy Systems Lead will provide leadership and support to the ANCFSAO and act as a liaison between the Ministry of Children, Community, and Social Services and Indigenous Child Well-Being Agencies for matters related to the deployment and sustainment of the Child Protection Information Network (CPIN) and/or Legacy Systems

Key Functions:

- Act as a liaison between the government and Indigenous Child Well-Being Agencies.
- Facilitate shared collaboration between Agencies to support local change management processes, service planning and operation planning to facilitate consistent use of CPIN/Legacy Systems
- Provide consultation and advice to the Agencies and Ministry and to successfully support change management and user acceptance and/or to provide alternatives/options for a sustainable system moving forward for Indigenous Child Well-Being Agencies.

Key Qualifications/Experience:

The ideal candidate will have 10 or more years of experience in Child Welfare where they have shown strong leadership skills and also has the trust of the field to move this forward collectively and respectfully. The ideal candidate will possess in-depth knowledge of government/Ministry strategic policy direction, goals and objectives related to child welfare. Detailed knowledge of the intent, interpretation, and application of related legislation and regulations (e.g., Child, Youth and Family Services Act) and related regulations, policies, and systems.

Salary $81,536.00 – $100,000.00
