WORK SITE LOCATION

The location of this position will be in the East, Central and West regions.

PHYSICAL DEMANDS AND WORK ENVIRONMENT

While performing the duties of this job, the Family Well-Being Worker will typically be in an office setting. The Family Well-Being Worker is frequently required to operate a computer, file and retrieve written documents, and work overtime when required or during emergency situations. The physical demands include, but are not limited to, standing, sitting, walking, lifting, carrying, reaching, handling, kneeling, crouching and bending. The Program Assistant will be required to travel to meetings within the district.

The administration of an office setting and team members can be mentally challenging. As a result, this position is more emotionally challenging than physically challenging. There will be extended periods of sitting required when performing administrative tasks and while attending meetings. Non-physical demands include a work environment where the noise level is usually moderate to high. The nature of the position may expose the Family Well-Being Worker to high levels of tension when dealing with issues. The level of tension is usually moderate, with high levels of tension occurring occasionally.

TECHNOLOGY & EQUIPMENT

Computer, photocopier, telephone, fax machine and cell phones

SUPERVISORY RESPONSIBILITY

This position is not required to supervise any staff.

KEY RELATIONSHIPS

Internal

The position requires interaction with the Protection and Resource Managers, Senior Management Team, Team Supervisors, Child Welfare Workers, Investigation and Assessment Workers, and Access Support Workers.

External

This position requires interaction with the Children's Aid Societies, other First Nation communities, and all service related agencies within the First Nation that respond to child welfare service delivery needs.

DISCLAIMER

This document describes the position currently available and is only a summary of the typical functions of the job. It is not an employment contract. The above job description is not an exhaustive list of the duties, responsibilities, working conditions or skills required for this position. Additional duties may be assigned. Nogdawindamin Family and Community Services reserves the right to modify job duties or the job description at any time.
