INTAKE & ASSESSMENT & FAMILY SERVICES

York Region Children's Aid Society (YRCAS) is focused on promoting the best interests, protection and well-being of children and youth. We work with parents, family members and community organizations to promote and support families to keep children and youth safe. YRCAS will work with families to overcome barriers that interfere with children and youth being given the opportunity to meet their full potential. YRCAS acknowledges that systemic racism is one of those barriers. York Region Children's Aid Society is currently seeking skilled and committed individuals to join our team as Child Protection Workers.

Job Description

Child Protection Workers will work within the areas of Intake & Assessment and Family Services at any one time subject to the needs of the organization. The Child Protection Worker position may be asked to perform any of the following Intake and Assessment and Family Service responsibilities:

1. Screen calls, determine response, provide information, consultation, assessment, crisis intervention to sources of referral such as other professionals and liaises closely with other service providers in the community to ensure optimum delivery of services.
2. Utilize anti-oppressive, critical thinking and solution focused involvements to carry out interventions with families using the least disruptive course of action required to ensure child/youth safety.
3. Ensure immediate safety of children through a Safety plan that involves engagement and collaboration with family, community, community organizations evidenced by creative thinking to overcome challenges when necessary.
4. Carry out investigation and assessments related to cases of alleged physical, emotional and/or sexual abuse involving children including making determinations regarding risk, verification, and recommendations.
5. Conduct joint investigations with police and other governing bodies and agencies, as appropriate to ensure the safety of children.

6. Have awareness and competency in identifying and addressing bias, discrimination, and racism to disrupt systemic barriers that families, children, and youth are experiencing.
7. Develop a plan for risk reduction and intervention, based on Comprehensive Assessments and Plans of Service as outlined in the Risk Assessment Model.
8. Determine when children require admission to the care of the Society and, where necessary, remove children to ensure their immediate safety as a last resort.
9. Assess and make decisions related to reunification plans and implement such plans where appropriate.
10. Develop and maintain effective and therapeutic casework relationships with service recipients with the objective of supporting and promoting their ability to reduce risk of harm to children.
11. Provide referrals to appropriate internal and external resources in order to provide quality service to Society service recipients, with the objective of reducing risk of harm to children.
12. Prepare admission documentation and develop initial plans of care for children who have been admitted into the Society's care.
13. Assess requests for financial assistance for clients and arrange for such assistance if deemed justified and necessary.
14. Supervise therapeutic access visits between children and caregivers as required.
15. Ensure both internal and external record checks are completed via "Search Request" through the CPIN Support Team.
16. Determine intervention of Family Court involvement and prepare accurate legal documentation, provide testimony in Unified Family Court and Criminal Court, prepare clients for court, enforce court orders in order to protect children.
